EDUCATION

University of Kentucky 2012

Emory University School of Law 2015

Above all, Matthew is an advocate for the injured. At the age of 19, Matthew was hit by a reckless driver trying to beat traffic while Matthew was riding a bicycle. As a result of the incident, Matthew suffered a serious head injury and was forced to put his career aspirations on hold while he recovered. Unfortunately, at that time Matthew did not have a strong advocate for him like those found at Morgan & Morgan and suffered as a result. Since his recovery, Matthew has worked relentlessly to become the advocate he is today.

Matthew graduated from Emory University School of Law in 2015 and has been a member of the Georgia bar ever since. Despite spending equal time in each of central New York, Kentucky, and Georgia, he considers himself a proud Georgia resident. When not at work, you might find Matthew at the gym or reading fiction.
