Rudwin Ayala is a Trial Attorney in Morgan & Morgan's Medical Malpractice Department where he focuses on the representation of victims of medical negligence and their families. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, P.A., Mr. Ayala was a named partner at a premier law firm in Fort Lauderdale, where for 13 years he litigated medical malpractice and other catastrophic injury cases throughout the State of Florida.

Mr. Ayala has achieved unprecedented success fighting for the rights and entitlements of those he has served, securing numerous substantial settlements and awards, obtaining life-changing trial verdicts, and defending countless others facing complex litigation that threatens to undermine their companies, their reputations and their livelihoods. Recognized for his impeccable professionalism and exceptional service, Mr. Ayala holds an AV Preeminent peer review rating* from Martindale-Hubbell, and he has earned numerous other awards and honors, including from Florida Super Lawyers, Best Lawyers, and countless other peer-reviewed publications.

Mr. Ayala is a 2007 magna cum laude graduate of Quinnipiac University and attended Nova Southeastern University's Shepard Broad College of Law, where he obtained his Juris Doctor in 2010 as a Goodwin Scholar. He received his license to practice from The Florida Bar that same year and is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the Southern, Middle and Northern Districts of Florida and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit. Mr. Ayala is also licensed to practice in the State of Texas.

A consummate professional, Mr. Ayala maintains an active presence in several local, state and national bar associations, including the Puerto Rican Bar Association of Florida and the Palm Beach County Bar Association. He previously acted as President of the Broward County Hispanic Bar Association, Region VIII (Florida) representative for the Hispanic National Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, and served on a Florida Bar Grievance Committee for the 17th Judicial Circuit.

Fluent in English and Spanish, Mr. Ayala is able to communicate with a broad clientele, further increasing his effectiveness as a seasoned trial attorney.

When not fighting for the people, Rudwin is blessed to enjoy time with his wife and four children, serving at his Church,
