Justin Uhlemann is a highly accomplished attorney with extensive experience in the legal realm. He previously held partner positions at prestigious AmLaw 100 firms, including McDermott Will & Emery LLP and Foley & Lardner, where he specialized in handling complex legal matters, providing strategic advice, and representing clients at the highest levels of the legal profession. Justin's proven ability to deliver exceptional results and his established track record make him a valuable asset to our team.

Before his partnership roles, Justin served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable Federico A. Moreno at the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. This experience afforded him a deep understanding of federal court procedures, judicial decision-making processes, and the intricacies of the legal system. Justin's time as a Law Clerk enhanced his legal skills and reinforced his commitment to fairness and justice in every case. With Justin's wealth of experience and unwavering dedication to excellence, our clients can rest assured that they will receive top-notch representation and advocacy.
