

Adam Brock-Dagnan

📍 Nashville, TN

📞 (615) 780-6337

✉️ adam.brockdagnan@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

University of Tennessee-Knoxville, 2018

LMU Duncan School of Law, 2021

Adam Brock-Dagnan, raised in Knoxville, Tennessee, is a dedicated attorney who has been practicing law for over three years, with a particular focus on workers' compensation. A proud alumnus of the University of Tennessee-Knoxville, where he graduated in 2018, Adam went on to earn his law degree from the LMU Duncan School of Law in 2021. Now based in Nashville, Tennessee, he brings a strong commitment to serving the local community and a deep understanding of Tennessee's legal landscape to his practice.

Known for his down-to-earth and approachable demeanor, Adam strives to be more than just a lawyer; he aims to be a trusted advocate and advisor. He is passionate about making the legal system accessible and understandable for his clients, helping them navigate the complexities of workers' compensation claims with ease and confidence. His approachability and dedication make him a reliable advocate for the rights of workers, ensuring they receive the representation and support they deserve.

BAR ADMISSION

- Tennessee
- 6th Circuit Court of Appeals
- Eastern District of Tennessee
- Western District of Tennessee

PRACTICE AREAS