Davarian Rousseau is a distinguished attorney based in Jacksonville, Florida, where he was born and raised. After completing his undergraduate education at the University of North Florida, Mr. Rousseau pursued his legal studies at the University of Florida Levin College of Law. With over five years of experience at a local Jacksonville firm prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Rousseau has handled a diverse range of personal injury claims from their initiation through to trial. His extensive trial experience is highlighted by a notable achievement—an $8.2 million verdict in Duval County in January 2024, demonstrating his prowess in the courtroom and his dedication to achieving justice for his clients.

Outside of the courtroom, Mr. Rousseau is deeply involved in the Jacksonville community. He currently serves as the President of the Board of Directors for Theatre Jacksonville and actively participates in the Future Lawyers and Leaders program at Raines High School. His commitment to his community reflects his values and dedication to fostering future generations. At home, he enjoys life with his wife, Sydney, and their two sons, Elijah and Noah. An avid sports fan, Mr. Rousseau spends his leisure time playing recreational sports, fishing, golfing, and rooting for the Florida Gators and Jacksonville Jaguars. His well-rounded life enhances his ability to connect with clients and colleagues alike, making him a valued member of both his professional and local communities.
