

Paul N. White-Davis

 Orlando, FL

pwhitedavis@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Rollins College: B.A. Politics

University of Miami School of Law: Juris Doctor

Paul N. White-Davis was born in Brooklyn, NY of Jamaican immigrants. After moving to Florida, he attended Lake Brantley High School, Rollins College, interned at the United Nations and earned his law degree from the University of Miami School of Law.

Mr. White-Davis has over 25 years of trial experience as a former Assistant State Attorney, an insurance defense attorney and for the last 18 years, helping the injured fight for their Workers' Compensation benefits.

He has been on the Orlando Family Magazine's "Awesome Attorney's" list for Workers' Compensation for the last several years.

BAR ADMISSION

- Florida

MEMBERSHIPS

- Member of the Florida Bar
- Workers' Compensation Section of the Florida Bar
- Former Member of the Workers' Compensation Rules Advisory Committee of the Florida Bar
- Former Member of the Board of Directors of Florida Workers' Advocates (FWA)
- Master in the William J. Wieland Workers' Compensation Inns of Court
- The Orange County Bar Association
- Paul C. Perkins Bar Association
- Board Member of the International Consortium of Caribbean Professionals (ICCP-USA)
- Former City of Orlando Municipal Planning Board Member (2005)
- World Association of Former United Nation Internes and Fellowes (WAFUNIF)

PRACTICE AREAS

- Workers' Compensation Lawyer

Paul N. White-Davis

 Orlando, FL

pwhitedavis@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Rollins College: B.A. Politics

University of Miami School of Law: Juris Doctor

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

- Orlando Family Magazine's "Awesome Attorneys" in Workers' Compensation Law for several years.