EDUCATION

University of Minnesota: Twin Cities

Mitchell Hamline School of Law

Ryan Carlson is an attorney in Morgan & Morgan's Hudson office, where he advocates for his clients with the same dedication and discipline that have defined his career in law and public service.

Ryan earned his Bachelor of Science in Sociology of Law, Criminology, and Deviance from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis before going on to receive his Juris Doctor from Mitchell Hamline School of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota.

He began his legal career as a judicial law clerk, advising judges on all facets of ongoing civil litigation, including docket management and the preparation of court orders. Ryan later joined a rural Minnesota law firm, where he served as city prosecutor while also representing clients in a wide range of civil litigation matters. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan in 2023, he served as a judicial staff attorney in Florida's Fifth and Thirteenth Judicial Circuits.

Before entering the legal profession, Ryan served honorably in the United States Army as an Infantryman from 2006 to 2013, including two combat deployments in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. In recognition of his actions during combat operations, he was awarded the Army Commendation Medal with Valor. The principles instilled by his military service—integrity, perseverance, and an unwavering commitment to those he serves—continue to shape his approach to the practice of law.

Outside the office, Ryan's greatest joys are found at home. He and his wife have been married for 19 years and are the proud parents of four children: twin four-year-old boys, Alex and Leo; their two-year-old daughter, Esme; and their newborn daughter, Adeline.
