EDUCATION

Florida State University, Bachelor of Science in Political Science

New York Law School, Juris Doctor

Matthew I. Rabinowitz was born and raised in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Upon graduation from Florida State University, Mr. Rabinowitz moved to New York to further his legal education at New York Law School.

While in law school, Mr. Rabinowitz served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Judge Peter P. Sweeney of the New York State Supreme Court, Kings County. It was while interning for Judge Sweeney that Mr. Rabinowitz found his calling to become an advocate for those seriously injured.

After graduation from New York Law School, Mr. Rabinowitz worked at two prestigious personal injury law firms in New York City.

Known as a fierce advocate within the courtroom, Mr. Rabinowitz understands how the life of a victim of personal injury changes in an instant and is committed to achieving the best results for his clients.

Mr. Rabinowitz has successfully litigated a variety of cases, including motor vehicle accidents, false arrest, nursing home negligence, premises liability, and other civil litigation lawsuits. Mr. Rabinowitz specializes in quickly bringing cases to resolution while keeping his clients informed at every step.
