Celeste Larson is a seasoned litigator with over 25 years of experience in conducting jury trials. Formerly focused on defending healthcare professionals including physicians, nurses, and hospitals, Celeste now passionately represents individuals who have been injured through no fault of their own. Never passing up an opportunity to learn and hone her skills over decades of practice, Celeste's extensive professional experience has allowed her to navigate complex legal matters effectively.

Beyond her legal career, Celeste finds fulfillment in spending quality time with her family. She and her husband are dedicated to raising children who share a love and passion for sports and the outdoors, including baseball, football, basketball, softball, cheer, and biking. Additionally, Celeste is no stranger to personal challenges, having completed multiple Ironman triathlons in the past, including an impressive 7th place finish in her age group at the World Championship Ironman in Kona, Hawaii.

Celeste approaches her legal practice with humility and gratitude, recognizing the trust placed in her by her clients during their most vulnerable times. She is committed to advocating tirelessly on their behalf, inspired by their resilience and determination to embrace life to its fullest despite adversity.

Looking ahead, Celeste remains dedicated to making a positive impact in the lives of those she serves. She seeks to continue advocacy for justice and support for individuals facing challenging circumstances.

In summary, Celeste Larson is more than just a litigator – she is a dedicated advocate, devoted wife and mother, and relentless champion for those in need. Her blend of legal expertise, personal integrity, and genuine compassion make her a trusted ally for individuals navigating difficult legal challenges.
