EDUCATION

Liberty University School of Law - 2022

West Chester University - 2019

Michael is a seasoned personal injury attorney with a proven track record of securing excellent outcomes for clients. His legal journey began at West Chester University in Pennsylvania, where he studied criminal justice, and continued at Liberty University School of Law in Virginia.

After obtaining his Virginia law license, Michael furthered his practical experience by clerking in the Roanoke County Circuit Court, where he gained valuable insights into legal strategies and courtroom dynamics.

Now practicing in his home state of New Jersey, Michael is a fierce advocate for those who have suffered injuries due to negligence. His sharp legal acumen ensures that he consistently strives for and achieves justice for his clients. Michael's commitment to his community and his clients is unwavering, as he continues to deliver exceptional results and uphold the rights of individuals in need.
