Daniel Weldon discovered his passion for helping victims when he was struck by a truck while walking home while in law school. The hit caused him internal bleeding, a punctured spleen, and broken bones which forced him to be treated at a hospital for several days. Mr. Weldon chose Morgan & Morgan to represent him. As a Morgan & Morgan client, he experienced firsthand how our firm fights for others and gets them the results that they deserve. He uses his experience as a victim to fight vigorously for our clients.

Now, Daniel Weldon is an attorney for Morgan & Morgan in his hometown of Tampa. He attended the University of Florida for his undergraduate where he played football for the Florida Gators. He received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and History. He went on to the University of Florida for law school, graduating with honors. Before joining Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Weldon was a prosecutor in Tampa where he gained invaluable trial experience.
