The University of Georgia 2014

The University of Georgia School of Law, cum laude 2017

Paul Wildes is a skilled attorney at the Columbus, Georgia, office of Morgan & Morgan, specializing in Premises Liability law, and is committed to representing injury victims. A proud Georgia native, Paul grew up in a small town just north of Athens, where he developed a strong sense of community and a passion for justice. Paul earned his Bachelor's Degree from the University of Georgia in 2014. He returned to his alma mater to pursue his Juris Doctorate, graduating cum laude from the University of Georgia School of Law in 2017. During law school, Paul distinguished himself by serving on the Editorial Board of the Georgia Law Review and receiving prestigious honors, including being named a Legal Fellow for the Carl Vinson Institute of Technology and the 2017 Recipient of the State Bar of Georgia Real Property Award.

Before joining Morgan & Morgan, Paul practiced at a premier insurance defense firm in Atlanta, where he gained valuable experience representing some of the largest insurance companies. This background gives him a unique insight into the opposition's strategies, which he now leverages to secure justice for his clients. At Morgan & Morgan, Paul focuses exclusively on advocating for injury victims, drawing on his deep understanding of both sides of the legal process to achieve the best possible outcomes.

Paul is a member of the Georgia Bar, the American Bar Association, and the Columbus Inn of Court, reflecting his commitment to professional excellence and continuous learning. Paul enjoys spending quality time with his wife and three sons outside his legal practice, coaching youth sports, and playing tennis. His dedication to his family and community mirrors his commitment to his clients, making Paul Wildes a trusted advocate who combines legal expertise with genuine care for the people he serves.
