EDUCATION

Augusta State University - 2008

Elon University School of Law - 2014

Trey Pitts is a dedicated attorney from the Augusta area with a diverse background in legal practice. Over the years, Trey has gained extensive experience in medical malpractice defense, trucking defense, banking law, and juvenile law, making him a well-rounded advocate for his clients. His wide-ranging expertise allows him to approach each case with a thorough understanding of complex legal issues and a passion for achieving the best outcomes.

Trey's educational journey began at Augusta State University, where he earned his degree in 2008. He then pursued his law degree at Elon University School of Law, graduating in 2014. After being admitted to the Georgia Bar, Trey quickly established himself in the legal community, using his knowledge to help clients navigate challenging legal matters.

Outside work, Trey is a proud father of five children—Adalyn, Warren, Harper, Chandler, and Anderson—who keep him busy. In his free time, he enjoys spending time outdoors and playing guitar, combining his love for nature and music with his family life. Trey's commitment to both his profession and personal life makes him a well-rounded attorney dedicated to making a positive impact in his community.
