EDUCATION

University of West Florida, Bachelor of Arts, graduated in 2014

Florida State University, College of Law, graduated in 2017

Ariele Harshbarger is a dedicated personal injury attorney based in Morgan & Morgan's Pensacola office, where she specializes in car accident cases. A Florida native, Ariele earned her Bachelor of Arts from the University of West Florida in 2014. Driven by her commitment to justice, she pursued her J.D. at Florida State University College of Law, graduating in 2017, and was admitted to the Florida Bar later that year.

Ariele began her legal career in the public sector, serving as a trial attorney and advocate for families and victims who often had no voice in the system. Her work focused on helping those in need and fighting for fair outcomes, earning her a reputation for her strong work ethic and dedication to others. These experiences shaped her approach to the law, fueling her passion for advocacy and justice.

Today, Ariele brings that same zeal to her work at Morgan & Morgan, where she fights tirelessly to help clients recover after car accidents. Known for her compassionate and determined approach, Ariele makes it her mission to ensure that each client feels supported throughout the legal process. In every case, her commitment to achieving the best possible outcome shines through, making her a trusted ally for those she represents.
