EDUCATION

Bellarmine University, Louisville, Kentucky, 1995

Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, Indianapolis, Indiana, 2013

Amy graduated with distinction from Bellarmine University in Louisville, Kentucky, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Philosophy. Amy earned her Doctorate of Jurisprudence from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law in Indianapolis, Indiana. In law school, Amy served as a clerk and intern for the Marion County Prosecutor's Office, Catholic Charities of Indianapolis, and the Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council. Amy is also a licensed Real Estate Broker.

Amy is no stranger to the courtrooms of Indiana. She has zealously advocated for her clients throughout Indiana's courts since her admission to the Indiana Bar. In 2023, Amy obtained a $2.8 million Bench Trial Judgment for an Indiana couple injured and damaged by a negligent California trucking company. Amy's clients know her well, because she takes the extra time and care to ensure her clients understand their cases and the legal process. Amy believes that being a great lawyer means being a true legal counselor.

Amy joined Morgan & Morgan because she wants to work for the best personal injury firm in the country, with the best resources and technology, to best serve her clients who have been wrongly hurt, injured, and damaged by others. Amy works in the Premises Liability practice at Morgan & Morgan.

In her spare time, Amy enjoys cheering on the sidelines for her children in their athletics. She is also a volunteer at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church in Carmel, Indiana.
