EDUCATION

Emory University, B.A. 2016

Vanderbilt University Law School, J.D. 2019

Connor Crum is a dedicated associate attorney at Morgan & Morgan's Atlanta office, where he focuses on advocating for burn and fire injury accident victims. Born with a passion for helping others, Connor's journey in law began with his studies at Emory University, where he earned his Bachelor of Arts in 2016. His time at Emory laid the groundwork for his commitment to justice and helping individuals navigate challenging times.

Following his undergraduate studies, Connor pursued his legal education at Vanderbilt University Law School, earning his Juris Doctor in 2019. At Vanderbilt, he honed his advocacy and legal analysis skills, preparing him to handle complex cases with compassion and precision. His education gave him the tools to fight for his clients' rights and ensure they receive the justice they deserve.

Now at Morgan & Morgan, Connor is proud to use his expertise to represent victims of burn and fire accidents. His approach combines empathy with a meticulous attention to detail, ensuring that each client feels supported throughout the legal process. Connor's dedication to making a difference in his clients' lives drives his daily work.
