EDUCATION

University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Paralegal Certificate, 2006

American Inter-Continental University, Bachelors in Criminal Justice, 2010

American Inter-Continental University, Masters in Business Finance, 2012

Arizona Summit Law School, Juris Doctor, 2015

As a Las Vegas native, Amber King brings a wealth of knowledge and dedication to her role as an attorney at Morgan & Morgan, with an extensive history in personal injury law. Amber holds a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and a master's degree in business finance. In 2006, she obtained her Paralegal Certificate from the University of Nevada Las Vegas, starting her legal career in personal injury.

Driven by this passion for the law and commitment to advocating for others, Amber pursued her Juris Doctor degree at Arizona Summit Law School, graduating in 2015. During her time in law school, she served as an editor for the law review, volunteered in the pro bono clinic, and published a notable article regarding the effects of bankruptcy on personal injury claims.

Amber has worked through all facets of a personal injury case as a case manager, assistant, paralegal, law clerk, and attorney. After law school, she returned to the firm where she first honed her skills and advanced those skills into managing cases from intake through litigation and trial. Her experience has shaped her client-centered approach and a deep understanding of personal injury matters.

Before joining Morgan & Morgan, Amber worked to exclusively represent plaintiffs in personal injury cases, including motor vehicle accidents, slip and falls, dog bites, product liability cases, negligent security cases, wrongful death, and other injury claims. Her extensive legal background and dedication to achieving justice for her clients make her an invaluable advocate for individuals navigating the complexities of their injuries.

Amber's commitment to her clients and her ability to deliver results exemplify Morgan & Morgan's mission of fighting for the peole.
