Peter Dorn is an attorney in our Philadelphia office with extensive trial experience in motor vehicle accident litigation. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, he spent the last thirteen years defending personal injury cases with an insurance defense firm. There, he took over thirty cases to verdict and helped to both develop and lead their trial advocacy program.

Known for his tenacity in and out of the courtroom, Peter is now committed to fighting for the rights of accident victims while applying his wealth of knowledge.

Outside the firm, he is a licensed Paramedic and has worked as a ground and flight medic for the last seventeen years. Peter has continued his involvement in emergency medical services and continues to sit on the Board of Directors for a local EMS agency, in addition to volunteering his time as a Senior Member of the National Ski Patrol.
