Matt Hochstein is a dedicated plaintiff's attorney at Morgan & Morgan, P.A., located in Greater Orlando, Florida. Armed with a Juris Doctor from Michigan State University College of Law and an MBA in Supply Chain Management from the same institution, Matt combines his legal expertise with a strong foundation in business operations. Throughout his career, he has focused on advocating for individuals who have been wronged, applying a wealth of knowledge gained from his diverse professional background, including over six years at Amazon, where he honed his skills in change management, operational excellence, and team leadership.

Before transitioning to the legal field, Matt played a pivotal role at Amazon, where he led initiatives aimed at addressing food insecurity in underserved urban communities and enhancing community partnerships. His experience as a Senior Business Operations Manager allowed him to develop innovative strategies that improved program performance and operational efficiency. This unique blend of legal and operational experience has enabled him to effectively navigate complex cases, ensuring that his clients receive the justice and compensation they rightfully deserve. As a process improvement expert, Matt is adept at identifying the underlying issues in cases and implementing effective solutions for his clients.

Outside of his professional endeavors, Matt enjoys spending quality time with his wife, Marilee, his high school sweetheart, and their three children. The family shares a passion for travel and the great outdoors, often exploring new destinations and creating lasting memories together. Fluent in English and with basic proficiency in Spanish and German, Matt is committed to fostering strong connections with clients from diverse backgrounds, ensuring that everyone has access to the legal representation they need. Whether in the courtroom or at home, Matt is driven by a desire to make a positive impact on the lives of others.
