EDUCATION

Nova Southeastern University
Shepard Broad College of Law,
2024

City College of New York
(CUNY), 2019

Yair Shalom Bengio was born and raised in Hollywood, Florida, not far from where he attended law school in Davie, FL. He earned his Bachelor's degree in Biochemistry from The City College of New York (CUNY) in 2019 before returning to Florida to pursue his J.D. at Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, graduating cum laude in Spring 2024.

During law school, Yair developed a passion for advocating for individuals against powerful corporations, particularly in personal injury and premises liability cases. He honed his legal skills by interning for Judge Robert W. Lee, the Administrative Judge for Broward County Court in Florida's 17th Judicial Circuit, and gaining hands-on litigation experience as a clerk in personal injury and products liability cases in Broward County.

Yair's analytical skills, professionalism, and dedication to client advocacy make him a valuable member of the Personal Injury and Premises Liability team.
