EDUCATION

Middle Georgia State University, B.S. 2010

Mercer University School of Law, J.D. 2019

Austin Goble is a dedicated and experienced attorney at Morgan & Morgan, bringing a diverse background in civil litigation, criminal defense, and real estate law. Originally from Augusta, Georgia, Austin now resides in Macon, Georgia, with his wife and two daughters.
Austin earned his undergraduate degree from Middle Georgia State University in 2010 and initially pursued a career in banking and finance. However, his passion for advocacy led him to enroll in law school at Mercer University in 2016. While at Mercer, he excelled in trial practice and procedure, earning the prestigious International Academy of Trial Lawyers Student Advocacy Award.

Upon graduating from law school, Austin joined a boutique litigation firm specializing in medical malpractice, where he honed his skills in high-stakes litigation. His broad legal experience allows him to approach cases with a well-rounded perspective, ensuring his clients receive the strongest representation possible.

At Morgan & Morgan, Austin leverages his financial background and extensive legal knowledge to fight for justice on behalf of his clients. His commitment to excellence and dedication to achieving the best outcomes make him a valuable asset to the firm and those he represents.
