EDUCATION

Sewanee: The University of The South, Bachelor of Arts, 2021

Tulane University Law School, Juris Doctor, 2024

Charlie is a third-generation attorney raised in Southwest Arkansas. He is a dedicated personal injury lawyer who found inspiration in the practice of law early in life through his parents and late grandfather.

After graduating from Ashdown High School in 2017, Charlie attended Sewanee: The University of The South. Months after enrolling, he was inducted into the Order of The Gown, the University's Academic Honor Society. He majored in Economics and graduated with Honors in 2021.

In the fall of 2021, Charlie enrolled in law school at Tulane University in New Orleans, graduating in 2024. During his time there, he served as the Student Advisory Editor of the Tulane Maritime Law Journal, the world's preeminent student-edited law journal in the field of admiralty and maritime law.

He found his way to Memphis as a Summer Associate with Morgan & Morgan after his second year at Tulane Law School.

In the summer of 2024 after obtaining his Juris Doctorate, Charlie accomplished the impressive feat of passing both the Louisiana Bar Exam and the Tennessee Bar Exam in back-to-back weeks.

To him, fighting for those in need is not just a passion, it's a privilege.
