EDUCATION

Dickinson College 2013

Villanova Law School 2017

David Jaffe is a passionate and skilled attorney who focuses his practice on complex personal injury cases. Born and raised in Philadelphia, David attended Masterman and Central High School before earning his undergraduate degree in Law and Policy from Dickinson College in 2013. He went on to receive his Juris Doctor from Villanova University School of Law in 2017, where he developed a strong foundation in legal advocacy.

David is admitted to practice in both the state and federal courts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Early in his career, he built a reputation for his thoughtful, determined approach to handling challenging injury cases. His deep roots in the Philadelphia area give him a unique ability to connect with his clients, understanding their struggles and fighting tirelessly on their behalf. His empathy and local insight fuel his drive to achieve the best outcomes possible for those he represents.

In addition to his legal practice, David is a certified arbitrator in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and actively gives back to the community by volunteering his time each week, offering legal guidance through various networking groups. Whether in the courtroom or the community, David brings dedication, compassion, and experience to everything he does.
