Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law, 2022, JD

Nihir U. Nanavaty, Esq., is dedicated to seeking justice for individuals and families affected by catastrophic injuries. He is licensed to practice law in Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Having grown up in Maryland, Nihir attended the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC), earning his B.A. in 2019, and laying the groundwork for his legal career. He furthered his education at the Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law, obtaining his Juris Doctor (JD) in 2022.

During his time at Drexel Law, Nihir was an award-winning member of the law school's nationally ranked trial team, where he honed his courtroom skills. Upon graduation, Nihir was awarded with the Kline School of Law Award for Excellence in Trial Advocacy.

Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Nihir gained valuable experience as a trial lawyer at a respected law firm in Baltimore. During this time, he handled a diverse range of cases and developed a deep understanding of the intricacies of litigation.

Nihir approaches each matter with compassion and determination. He understands the challenges his clients face and works diligently to achieve the best possible outcomes on their behalf. Clients can trust him to work tirelessly to advocate for their rights and navigate them through challenging legal processes.
