Florida State University, B.S. 2016

Joshua Resnick is a skilled trial attorney dedicated to advocating for individuals who have suffered serious injuries. A graduate of the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he earned his J.D. with honors and was recognized for outstanding pro bono service, Joshua brings a meticulous and client-centered approach to every case. He has served as lead counsel in numerous trials, securing substantial judgments and settlements, and is known for his thorough preparation and effective courtroom advocacy. Joshua guides injury victims through each stage of the litigation process; from gathering evidence and negotiating settlements to vigorously advocating for clients at trial, he is dedicated to securing the maximum compensation they deserve.

Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Joshua worked at a large law firm representing corporations and fiduciaries in high-stakes litigation. He also briefly served as a prosecutor in Palm Beach County, where he advocated for the rights of domestic violence and DUI crime victims. Joshua chose to join Morgan & Morgan because the firm is truly "for the people, not the powerful," embodying a commitment to stand up for everyday individuals against insurance companies and corporate interests, ensuring justice is accessible to all, not just the privileged.

A Palm Beach County native, Joshua is deeply invested in his community and is recognized for his leadership and service. His combination of trial experience, strategic insight, and dedication to client service makes him a trusted advocate for those seeking justice after an injury.
