Florida International University,
B.B.A., 2020

Stanley Dessalines is a personal injury attorney at Morgan & Morgan's Orlando office, where he focuses on representing individuals injured in car accidents. Born and raised in Florida, Stanley has always been passionate about helping others in his community. His early interest in business and advocacy led him to pursue a Bachelor of Business Administration at Florida International University, where he graduated in 2020.

Stanley went on to earn his Juris Doctor from Barry University School of Law in 2024. During law school, he developed a strong foundation in litigation and legal strategy, driven by a desire to advocate for those affected by negligence. His dedication to client-centered representation and justice made personal injury law a natural fit. At Morgan & Morgan, Stanley combines his education and compassion to help clients navigate their legal challenges and fight for the compensation they deserve.

Outside of his legal work, Stanley enjoys staying active through fitness and spending quality time with his family. His personal and professional life is grounded in discipline, integrity, and a deep commitment to serving others—values that define his approach to every case he handles.
