EDUCATION

2019 - Florida International University Honors College - BA in Criminal Justice, Minor in Business

2022 - University of Florida Levin College of Law - JD

Aryeh Frank is a personal injury attorney based in the Orlando office of Morgan & Morgan. His practice focuses on premises liability, including slip/trip and falls, negligent or inadequate security, and animal attacks throughout Central Florida.

Originally from St. Louis, Missouri, Mr. Frank moved to Miami Beach during his teenage years. He earned his B.A. in Criminal Justice, with a Minor in Business, from Florida International University's Honors College, graduating with honors. He attended on a scholarship so substantial that he was effectively paid to attend. While completing his degree, he worked full-time as a lifeguard on Fort Lauderdale Beach.

Mr. Frank went on to earn his J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law on a full scholarship. During law school, he was published in the Journal of Civic Information, served as President of the Jewish Law Student Association, and was a General Board Member of the Florida Journal of International Law.

He joined Morgan & Morgan shortly after graduation and has since dedicated his practice to personal injury, premises liability, and broader civil litigation. Mr. Frank takes pride in zealously advocating for his clients and working tirelessly to achieve meaningful results on their behalf. Outside of the office, Mr. Frank enjoys training in Muay Thai, spearfishing, and spending time with his dog, Rebel.
