University of Illinois College of Law - Cum Laude

Lior Millman is a personal injury pre-suit attorney based in Morgan & Morgan's Boston office. He earned both his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. As a Political Science major, Lior was deeply engaged in political organizations and campaigns, but ultimately realized that direct legal advocacy was his true passion. He went on to attend the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign College of Law, where he was treasurer of the Sports and Entertainment Law Society and actively participated in the Personal Injury Law and Medical Malpractice Society. He graduated cum laude and quickly set out to make a difference for injured individuals.

After law school, Lior gained hands-on experience at a personal injury firm in the Boston area, where he spent nearly two years representing clients and deepening his understanding of injury law. He now brings that same energy and drive to his role at Morgan & Morgan, helping people navigate the aftermath of accidents and pursue the compensation they deserve.
