EDUCATION

University of San Diego 2015

University of San Francisco School of Law 2018

Henry Huang was born and raised in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico. At 18 he moved to California to study mechanical engineering at the University of San Diego and then went on to attend the University of San Francisco School of Law where he developed and sculpted his legal acumen to focus on passionate advocacy for those in need of legal justice in the areas of litigation and prosecution whilst serving as the President of the Intellectual Property & Cyber Law Association.

Throughout his career, Henry has worked in areas of law including both civil offensive and defensive litigation, first-chaired at trial, engaged in patent litigation and prosecution, advised corporate strategy, and advocated civil rights for Spanish-speaking citizens, working closely with some of the best legal minds in the country.

Henry is a member of the California State Bar, a registered practitioner with the United States Patent & Trademark Office, and is actively involved in county bar associations in Southern California as well as Northern California. He is also an avid motorcycle rider and racer, having been the national champion of motocross in Puerto Rico in 2009.
