Erin Sacks is a Partner at Morgan & Morgan, where she represents individuals in personal injury cases with unwavering commitment and strategic insight. Licensed in both Texas and Michigan, Ms. Sacks brings more than a decade of multifaceted legal experience to her role, advocating for those who have been wrongfully injured.

Ms. Sacks earned her Juris Doctor from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 2011 and holds a Bachelor of Arts from Michigan State University. Her legal career began in the military justice system, where she served as a criminal defense attorney. She later transitioned into insurance and medical malpractice defense, gaining valuable perspective on the inner workings of the defense side—experience that now informs her plaintiff-focused practice.

Since joining Morgan & Morgan, Ms. Sacks has dedicated her career to fighting for the rights of injured Texans. Her background enables her to anticipate defense strategies and build compelling cases that deliver results. She is known for her tenacity, professionalism, and deep empathy for her clients.

Outside of her legal practice, Ms. Sacks enjoys spending time with her husband and two children, cheering on the Dallas Cowboys, and relaxing on her family's ranch in West Texas.
