EDUCATION

University of North Florida (2019-2021)

Stetson University College of Law (2022-2025)

Amanda Huber is an attorney out of Morgan & Morgan's Tampa office.

Ms. Huber graduated from the University of North Florida with a major in Political Science and a minor in International Studies. She went on to earn her Juris Doctor from Stetson University College of Law, graduating cum laude. During law school, she was named to the Honor Roll, wrote an article for Business Law Review, and earned the Book Award in Criminal Law; recognitions that reflect her strong academic performance and dedication to legal scholarship.

Before becoming an attorney, Ms. Huber served as a Litigation Paralegal at Morgan & Morgan in Jacksonville, where she gained hands-on experience supporting clients and trial teams through every stage of premises liability litigation. That background allows her to hit the ground running and provide practical, detail-oriented advocacy from day one.

Admitted to the Florida Bar, Ms. Huber brings a fresh perspective, a rigorous work ethic, and unwavering dedication to her clients. Driven by a commitment to justice, she is not just an attorney; she is a relentless advocate for those injured by others' negligence.

Outside of the office, Ms. Huber enjoys traveling, beach days, attending concerts, and spending time with friends and family.
