EDUCATION

Louisiana State University 2000

The University of Alabama School of Law 2003

Trey Wimberly began his academic journey at Louisiana State University, where he completed his undergraduate studies and graduated in 2000. Driven by a passion for the legal profession, he then attended the University of Alabama School of Law to pursue his legal education. During his time in law school, he focused on mastering trial advocacy and complex legal strategy, ultimately earning his Juris Doctor in 2003. Following graduation, Trey successfully achieved bar admissions in both Alabama and Mississippi, establishing a versatile legal foundation that allowed him to serve clients across state lines.

Over the course of his distinguished career, Trey has built an elite reputation as a skilled and dedicated advocate inside and outside the courtroom. His exceptional legal abilities and high ethical standards earned him the prestigious AV Preeminent Rating from Martindale-Hubbell, a distinction reflecting the highest level of professional excellence as recognized by his peers. Today, Trey brings his wealth of experience to the Morgan & Morgan office in Mobile, Alabama, where he serves as a dedicated trial attorney focusing on car accident cases. Known for his friendly and approachable demeanor, he fights passionately to help injured individuals navigate the legal system and secure the maximum compensation they need to recover.
