EDUCATION

University of Colorado at Boulder, 2003

Florida Coastal School of Law, 2008

Kristy Vancore earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado at Boulder in 2003 before pursuing her passion for advocacy and the law. She went on to obtain her Juris Doctor from Florida Coastal School of Law in 2008, where she was an active member of the Mock Trial team. During law school, Kristy gained early courtroom exposure and practical experience by clerking in litigation, helping to shape her analytical approach and trial skills.

After graduating, Kristy built extensive litigation experience representing both individuals and businesses in state courts across Georgia as well as in federal district courts. She is known for her commitment to thorough preparation, focusing on detailed factual investigations and comprehensive legal research to develop strong and effective arguments. Kristy has also published multiple articles highlighting successful and innovative legal strategies, reflecting her dedication to continuous learning and thought leadership within the legal community.

Kristy is now an attorney at Morgan and Morgan's Jacksonville office, where she focuses on medical malpractice and nursing home abuse cases. Outside of her practice, she enjoys spending time with her family and her Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, along with scuba diving, traveling, beach days, and attending Jaguars games. Kristy is also actively involved in her community, volunteering with organizations such as Field of Dreams Baseball, St. Johns, and the Junior Service League of St. Augustine, and serving on the Patient Advisory Board of MD Anderson Cancer Center in Jacksonville.
