Attorney Maalouf is an attorney representing plaintiffs and families in personal injury and wrongful death cases. His practice focuses on motor vehicle collisions including car accidents, trucking accidents, and motorcycle accidents. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, PA, Elie represented victims of medical malpractice and catastrophic personal injury cases for a premier New Hampshire medical malpractice and personal injury law firm. He also formerly served on the New Hampshire Association for Justice's Board of Governors and Publications Committee.

Elie has been recognized for his zealous advocacy by Best Lawyers, Personal Injury (2026 & 2027); Best Lawyers, Medical Malpractice (2026 & 2027); Best Lawyers, "Ones to Watch" in Medical Malpractice (2022-2025), Best Lawyers, "Ones to Watch" in Personal Injury (2023-2025); and New England Super Lawyers Rising Stars (2023-2026).

Elie graduated, cum laude, from Suffolk University Law School, where he served as Note Editor on the Suffolk Law Review. Elie received his undergraduate degree in American History from Boston University. While in law school, Elie served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Timothy S. Hillman in the US District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Worcester.
