Kellian Summers is a Trial Attorney specializing in complex, high-exposure cases involving catastrophic personal injury, wrongful death, and premises liability.

Kellian is the rare litigator who understands civil cases from every angle at both the state and federal level. Prior to joining the plaintiffs' bar, Kellian was a Partner at a preeminent litigation firm where she spent nearly a decade on the trial team led by one of the nation's most sought-after civil defense trial attorneys. While there, Kellian regularly obtained outstanding results for her clients who were facing claims involving catastrophic personal injury, product defect, sexual molestation of a child, dangerous condition of public property, and class actions, as well as constitutional violations including excessive use of force, assault, battery, and false arrest/imprisonment.

Having defended high-profile clients in high-exposure cases for many years, Kellian understands what the other side is doing and considering at every turn. This insight informs her efficient and effective litigation style of achieving fantastic results for her clients when it may otherwise have taken years to do so.

Kellian is a fierce advocate for her clients. She believes every client has a story to be told and considers it a privilege to be the one to tell it. Her relentless pursuit of accountability and justice is unmatched and is one of the many reasons why Kellian is such a formidable opponent.
