Austin Auletta was born and raised in Port St. Lucie, Florida. Ever since he could remember, he wanted nothing more than to become an attorney to help those who did not have a voice.

To pursue that legal career, he moved to Central Florida. For close to 10 years, he has had the honor of calling Central Florida his home. Upon graduation from Barry University School of Law, one of his first jobs as an attorney was as an Assistant State Attorney for the Counties of Orange, Osceola, and Seminole. Through his time there, he mastered the craft of being a trial lawyer and fighting for the rights of those who were victims of violent crimes such as Attempted Murder, Armed Robbery, and Armed Carjacking, just to name a few. In his time in this position, he was able to try well over sixty cases to verdict.

Austin has since over the years, dedicated his career to fighting for those who do not have a voice, just as he will fight for you. Austin has recovered millions of dollars for his clients involved in motor vehicle collisions. Austin advocates for those injured through no fault of their own. He understands the importance of being there for his clients and is prepared to fight for you.
