

Kaili Kobylka

North Charleston, SC
(843) 973-5975
kaili.kobylka@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

San Francisco State University

Charleston School of Law

Kaili N. Kobylka is originally from Napa, California, and brings a thoughtful and relationship-driven approach to her legal career. She earned her undergraduate degree from San Francisco State University before pursuing her law degree at Charleston School of Law. Admitted to practice in South Carolina, Kaili was drawn to the legal profession by a desire to build authentic connections with clients and advocate with clarity, integrity, and professionalism.

Now practicing at Morgan and Morgan's Charleston, South Carolina office, Kaili is focused on personal injury and civil litigation matters. As a recently licensed attorney, she is eager to continue developing hands-on litigation experience while contributing meaningfully to a results-oriented team. Known for her strong communication skills, attention to detail, and strategic mindset, Kaili approaches every case with collaboration and dedication, working to ensure clients feel heard, supported, and confident throughout the legal process.

BAR ADMISSION

- South Carolina

PRACTICE AREAS

- Premises Liability Lawyer