EDUCATION

Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law May 2025

Drexel University Charles D Close School of Entrepreneurship (2022)

Robert Newman is a proud native of the Philadelphia region with a strong commitment to advocating for injured individuals. He earned his undergraduate degree from Drexel University's Charles D. Close School of Entrepreneurship in 2022, where he developed a practical, business-minded approach to problem-solving. He earned his Juris Doctor from Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law in 2025, combining his entrepreneurial training with legal education to develop a client-focused, solutions-driven perspective.

Before and throughout law school, Robert gained hands-on experience in personal injury matters, which helped him develop a strong understanding of case strategy, client communication, and litigation preparation. This practical foundation helps him guide clients confidently through each stage of their case while positioning matters thoughtfully and effectively. His approach emphasizes clear communication, careful preparation, and advocacy tailored to each client's goals and circumstances.

Robert is deeply engaged in the legal community and committed to professional excellence. He serves on the Executive Board of The Brandeis Law Society and is an active member of the American Association for Justice, the Pennsylvania Association for Justice, and both the Pennsylvania and American Bar Associations. A Philadelphian through and through, Robert currently resides in the city and enjoys exploring its art scene, discovering new restaurants, and traveling when he has time away from the office.
