EDUCATION

Bachelors of Arts received from The Catholic University of America in May 2021

Juris Doctorate received from DePaul University College of Law in May 2024

Dana Durham began her academic journey at The Catholic University of America, where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in May 2021. Driven by a passion for the legal profession, she moved to Chicago to attend DePaul University College of Law. During her time in law school, she gained practical experience as a law clerk, which helped her develop a deep understanding of the legal system's intricacies before earning her Juris Doctor in May 2024.

Now a barred attorney in Illinois, Dana applies the insights she gained from her previous roles as both a law clerk and an associate attorney to her current practice. Based in the Chicago office of Morgan & Morgan, she focuses on representing individuals involved in personal injury matters, particularly those arising from car accidents. Dana is dedicated to using her background to provide compassionate and effective advocacy for her clients as they navigate the recovery process.
