EDUCATION

University of Nevada, Las Vegas (1998)

University of Baltimore School of Law (2012)

Niki Mendrinos began her professional journey with an enterprising spirit, holding various management positions in commercial businesses after earning her Bachelor of Science from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Driven by a long-standing dream to practice law, she transitioned to the University of Baltimore School of Law. During her time there, she excelled academically and professionally, serving as the Managing Editor of the Journal of Land and Development and representing her school on the National Moot Court Competition Team. She graduated with honors in 2012, having already gained significant exposure to the judicial system through internships with the Honorable Judge Barry Williams and the Honorable Judge John Prevas.

Today, she is a highly accomplished attorney licensed to practice in Maryland, the District of Columbia, New York, and the United States District Court for the District of Maryland. Her exceptional talent has been recognized by her peers for six consecutive years, earning her a consistent spot on the Maryland Rising Stars list by Maryland Super Lawyers from 2017 through 2022.

In her current practice, Niki is known for her meticulous eye and practical approach to complex legal matters. Whether she is collaborating with colleagues or advocating for her clients, Niki remains dedicated to excellence and the pursuit of favorable legal outcomes.
