EDUCATION

Golden Gate University School of Law- 2003

San Jose State University-1999

Arezou H. Piroozi is an experienced attorney with more than 20 years of legal practice and a longstanding commitment to advocating for individuals and families in need. Her background includes work in personal injury, immigration, and family law, giving her a broad perspective and a strong foundation in client advocacy.

Born in Iran and raised in the United States from the age of three, Ms. Piroozi has lived in Oklahoma, Illinois, California, Spain, and Nevada. She has practiced law in Nevada since 2006 and is admitted to practice in both Nevada and Texas.

Ms. Piroozi earned her Juris Doctor and MBA from Golden Gate University School of Law in San Francisco. She also studied Psychology and Biology at San Jose State University, an academic background that supports her thoughtful, analytical approach to complex legal matters.

Before founding Piroozi Law Group, PLLC, Ms. Piroozi gained valuable experience at respected Las Vegas law firms, where she developed her litigation, case management, and client service skills. She later led her own practice for more than a decade, representing clients in personal injury, immigration, family, and civil matters with dedication and compassion.

She subsequently joined a firm where she managed a large team handling a high volume of personal injury cases. Today, Ms. Piroozi brings that same drive, leadership, and client-first approach to her work helping injury victims pursue the compensation they deserve.

Known for her tenacity, strategic thinking, and compassionate counsel, Ms. Piroozi is also fluent in Farsi and takes pride in serving a diverse client base with culturally informed representation.

Outside the office, she enjoys snowboarding, traveling, fitness, and spending time with her son, Ayden.
