

Marlon Becerra

📍 New York, NY

📞 (212) 801-4537

✉️ marlon.becerra@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Hampshire College, B.A.,
graduated May 2019

Harvard Law School, J.D.,
graduated May 2023

Born in Queens and raised with a strong sense of purpose, Marlon Becerra began his academic journey at Hampshire College. During his undergraduate years, he focused on building a diverse intellectual foundation, ultimately earning his Bachelor of Arts in May 2019. Driven by the goal of becoming a first-generation lawyer, he went on to attend Harvard Law School. He excelled in his legal studies and graduated with his Juris Doctorate in May 2023, marking a significant milestone in his professional path.

Now a dedicated attorney within the General Liability group, Marlon applies his elite training to help clients navigate the critical early stages of their legal matters. He currently focuses his practice on pre-suit work, ensuring that every case is built on a solid foundation from the very beginning. Marlon's background as a first-generation professional fuels his approachable and hardworking style, as he strives to provide high-quality legal support while making the process accessible for everyone he represents.

BAR ADMISSION

- New York

PRACTICE AREAS

- Premises Liability Lawyer