EDUCATION

Fisk University

The University of South Florida

Florida A&M University

Marshelle Brooks was raised in Tampa, Florida. She is a proud alumna of Fisk University and Florida A&M University College of Law.

Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Marshelle represented injured clients across Florida in a wide range of cases, including automobile accidents, slip and fall incidents, and sexual assault matters. Her experience reflects a deep commitment to justice and client-centered advocacy.

Marshelle is dedicated to providing both compassionate guidance and aggressive representation. She is committed to protecting her clients' rights against insurance companies while ensuring clients are informed and supported throughout every stage of their personal injury claims.

Outside of practicing law, Marshelle enjoys running, traveling, and spending quality time with friends and family.
