EDUCATION

J.D., Florida Coastal School of Law 2007

B.A., University of the South - Sewanee 2000

Originally from Rockland County, New York, Frank Fratello, Jr. began his academic journey by heading to the Cumberland Plateau to attend the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. After earning his Bachelor of Arts in 2000, he traded the mountains for the coast to pursue his passion for the law. He moved to Jacksonville, Florida, where he attended the Florida Coastal School of Law, ultimately receiving his Juris Doctor in 2007.

Frank's professional approach is built on a rock-solid foundation of fairness and loyalty. He is known as a dedicated worker who refuses to quit, even when facing the most difficult circumstances. These core character traits drive his daily practice, as he works tirelessly to ensure his clients receive full justice under the law. His resilience and steadfast commitment make him a reliable advocate for those navigating complex legal challenges.

Outside his legal career, Frank is a devoted family man, married with three active boys. While he jokingly admits that spare time is a rare luxury with three children at home, he remains deeply committed to staying active in his local area. He finds great fulfillment in working to improve the community, balancing his busy professional life with a genuine desire to make a positive impact on the world around him.
