EDUCATION

Howard University, Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science

Mercer University School of Law, Juris Doctor degree

Larissa spent the first 10 years of her legal career in public service as an assistant district attorney. In that capacity, she proudly served the residents of Macon-Bibb County, Clayton County, Fulton County, and Cobb County, Georgia. Larissa was a part of the trial team that successfully prosecuted the killers of Ahmaud Arbery in 2021. Over the course of her career, Larissa prosecuted a wide range of felony cases, from drug and property offenses to homicide offenses.

Larissa is passionate about standing up for others and looks forward to vigorously fighting for justice for her personal injury clients as she did for victims of crime. Larissa obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Howard University and her Juris Doctor degree from Mercer University School of Law. Larissa lives in Cobb County and is an active member of Passion City Church.
