EDUCATION

College - Virginia Tech

Law School - University of Dayton

Amanda ("AC") Rieman Sarago, Esq. received her business degree from Virginia Tech and obtained her juris doctorate from the University of Dayton School of Law in Ohio. Amanda then completed an online initiative from Harvard University and successfully received a passing grade in Contract Law, taught by a beneficial Professor of Law at Harvard Law School. She was a Virginia Supreme Court-certified mediator for general district court and continues to be a guest judge by invitation only at William and Mary Law School's yearly Negotiation Tournament. Amanda is also listed as a "Who's Who in America" representing Women in Law from the state of Virginia. Amanda published her first children's book, "The Pretty, Pretty (And Smart) Princess," which can be found on Amazon. In 2023, Amanda was selected as a 2023 Rising Star by Super Lawyers.

Amanda is a former President of the Virginia Women Attorneys Association, Fredericksburg Chapter. Their mission is to assist female attorneys in developing their professional practice and achieving their potential, to bring about changes in the law, and to affect public policy for the benefit of the women of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Amanda has been a legal analyst for NBC-29, WHSV Harrisonburg, and Local News Live in Washington DC, where she provides legal insight into news stories, as well as a guest on Nancy Grace and Dan Abrams. Amanda has been a guest on WJMA's "Local Issues, Real People," which is a Sunday morning program that focuses on members of the local communities, discussing issues that are important. Amanda joins the ranks of other business, government, and community leaders, such as Congressman Eric Cantor, Governor Bob McDonald, and Delegate Nick Frietas, who were also selected for this broadcast.
