Keller Fisher was born and raised in New Orleans, where he grew up surrounded by the rich culture of the city. Driven by a desire to help others navigate the legal system, he focused his efforts on becoming an advocate for individuals in need. After successfully completing law school, Keller decided to make a major move and relocated to Florida to launch his professional legal career, bringing his dedication and fresh legal training to the Sunshine State.

Since making that move, Keller has spent almost a decade practicing plaintiff insurance law, focusing his talents on first-party property and personal injury claims. Over the course of his career, he has successfully gone head-to-head with major insurance companies, securing favorable trial verdicts and recovering millions of dollars for clients facing difficult circumstances. Keller's extensive courtroom experience and deep understanding of insurance litigation have earned him a stellar reputation in the legal community, leading to invitations to share his insights on attorney panels at various professional conferences.

Today, Keller continues to bring his passionate advocacy, extensive trial experience, and friendly, approachable demeanor to his legal practice. He remains fully committed to standing up for individuals and families, ensuring they have a strong voice when dealing with powerful corporations. Outside of his busy professional life, Keller enjoys a vibrant and rewarding personal life in Florida, where he is happily married and loves spending quality time with his wife and their daughter.
