EDUCATION

Florida State University

University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law

Gabriella Leonard is a J.D. graduate from the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law and is based in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Ms. Leonard grew up in Fort Myers, Florida. She attended Florida State University, where she earned her Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and Editing, Writing, and Media, along with a certificate in Emergency Management and Homeland Security. She went on to earn her Juris Doctor from the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law.

During law school, Ms. Leonard served as an Articles Editor for the Arizona Journal of International and Comparative Law and as an Arizona Law Ambassador. She also served as a 1L and 2L delegate for the Student Bar Association, roles that reflect her leadership, dedication to the legal community, and commitment to service.

Ms. Leonard gained experience with Morgan & Morgan, P.A. in St. Petersburg, where she continued developing practical legal skills and a strong foundation in client-focused advocacy. Her academic background, writing experience, and leadership roles allow her to bring a thoughtful, detail-oriented approach to every matter she handles.

With a strong sense of purpose and a client-centered mindset, Ms. Leonard approaches each case with diligence, compassion, and attention to detail. She is committed to advocating for individuals who have been injured by negligence and strives to help clients feel supported throughout the legal process.
