EDUCATION

Catholic University, Columbus School of Law, Visiting Student, 2006-2007

Florida Coastal School of Law, JD 2007

Union College, BA in Political Science, 2001

Scott Brennan was born and raised in Westchester County, New York. After graduating from Union College in Schenectady, New York, he moved to Washington, D.C. to work at a large international law firm, with a focus on international trade and antitrust law. This work further inspired him to pursue a law degree. Upon graduation from law school in 2007, and true to his commitment to help individuals in the community, Scott returned to the DC area and opened his own law firm in Rockville, Maryland, where he has resided for the past 15 years.

Scott has practiced in the areas of personal injury, civil litigation, family law, and criminal defense throughout the State of Maryland and in the District of Columbia. He has had the distinguished honor of representing individuals and families of limited means who have been wronged or falsely accused, as well as soldiers and Marines going through difficult life adjustments.

When he is not working, Scott enjoys skiing, hiking, running, and spending time with his family.
