EDUCATION

California Polytechnic University, Pomona (2003)

Southwestern Law School SCALE Program (2010)

Henrik Sardarbegian is a legal advocate defined by an unyielding passion for justice, a competitive spirit, and a deep-seated commitment to his community. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, he founded Sardarbegian Law, APLC in 2012, where he established himself as a formidable opponent against insurance carriers. He has dedicated his career to leveling the playing field for injured individuals who often feel voiceless against corporate giants.

A graduate of Cal Poly Pomona, Mr. Sardarbegian earned his Juris Doctorate from Southwestern Law School's prestigious SCALE program. What sets him apart is his genuine, human-centric approach. He believes that to truly represent a client, one must tell their story—not just the legal facts, but the human impact of their injuries. He advocates passionately for his clients' physical, emotional, and financial well-being to ensure juries see the individual behind the claim.

Mr. Sardarbegian brings a competitor's heart to the courtroom. His background in athletics is woven into his professional identity; the discipline and strategy he honed playing soccer and basketball are utilized to outmaneuver legal opposition. This drive is evidenced by his leadership history; he has served as a basketball coach at Homenetmen Ararat for over 30 years and was named CIF Pacific League Coach of the Year in 2008. He applies this coaching philosophy to his cases by meticulously preparing a game plan and executing with precision.

As a pillar of his community, he serves as an Executive Board member at Homenetmen Ararat, a City of Glendale Parks & Recreation Commissioner, along with serving on the boards of various other non-profit organizations. His journey from a young immigrant to a respected legal professional is a testament to the power of hard work and the importance of fighting for those who cannot fight for themselves.
